Go ahead. Buy this game in order to satisfy your achievement fetish.. Another misleading game, the description got nothing to do with the real game, and the only thing that sell is the easy chievos completion, and on that regard, the dev nailed it, be it crap or not, the truth is he really sell his games, so i have to give him thumb up for the effort.. Just another unfinished game with little to no replay value.

pros:
tutorial
easy achievements (for those in need)

cons:
very simple level design and an unreliable map, enemies spawn usually right behind you or anywhere you wouldn't suspect them very dark nights and annoying sounds, missing collision data for the environment (trees)

. Let's not get it twisted: this game isn't a AAA game; this game is for having a fun time killing demons and giant spiders.

I've played a few games by this developer. They remake the same game with different enemy and weapon designs. This isn't a bad thing in my book. I buy the games on sale and play the heck out of them while watch trashy reality tv on my other monitor screen.

It's a fun time and a great way to just relax and not overthink what you're doing.

I'm a simple person: I see demons and I shoot them. It's not hard and it's a great way to spend the bit of free time that I'm able to spend playing video games.

I'll keep buying these games and playing them.. Just the worst, I hate it I really do. I would write a long description of why the game sucks but the game is so boring it took all the energy out of me.. Game is playable, unlike a lot of garbage, but is boring. Nothing like trailer.
Feels like GameGuru (almost), but was made on Unity...

Supposed to feature Multiplayer, but I doubt anyone will get a match, unless have an appointment with a friend.. This is not a game, it is a student project that accidentally made it to steam. One word - Atrocious.. I knew I should of bought a Kit Kat candy bar instead of this game, At least I would of enjoyed it..

Save your money and buy candy bar or a nice cold soda.. bad game, sucks so much i could have been your mom last night

Sense of The Devil more like wish I had the sense not to of bought this pile of dog♥♥♥♥♥♥of a game it throws the thousand achievements wich is kinda what I expected given the price but honestly it only held about 11 mins worth of playability for me wich is just absoluteley pathetic I expected a bit more going into the game... so yeah don't buy this pile of crap.. I actually enjoyed the game. Sure there's only spiders and two legged demons only in the game but a fun first person shotting game.. i dont need to explain 666???. Achievement simulator.

. Achievement Spam. Kill things,repeat. Just the worst, I hate it I really do. I would write a long description of why the game sucks but the game is so boring it took all the energy out of me.. Ok this one is a little worse. I got this in the 4 dollar bundle too, but you basically get an achievement for your first ten kills then the other 50 of wave one is where the fun stops. I don't totally hate it, but it needs a story line at least. that would also drive the price up as well as make it more interesting. Just an idea.
